FYI you asked a good question about the draft re: the statement about investing in alternatives. There is evidence of that, but we chose to delete the sentence instead.
FYI.
Pam.

Pam
It's true that InsideClimate News originally accused us of working against science but ultimately modified their accusation to working against policies meant to stop climate change, such as Kyoto.
I'm ok either way since they were both true at one time or another.

Alan,
You added this line:
working against climate policies

Would that be better as "working against climate science."?
