Dear Mr. Powers:

The Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy requests documents and information on Cosco, Inc.'s belt-positioning booster seat(s).

We are conducting an investigation into the safety and marketing of belt-positioning booster seats following a recent ProPublica report about your competitor Evenflo's "Big Kid" booster seat.¹

In order to assist the Subcommittee in its review of this matter, please provide the following information by February 28, 2020, regarding the Pronto! Belt-positioning Booster Car Seat and other belt-positioning booster seats marketed or sold by Cosco:

1. All impact test videos, including side-impact test videos;
2. All documents referring or relating to the following:
 - a. Labeling concerning the age, weight, and height of children for whom the seat is intended, including on marketing materials, packaging, instructional materials, or the seat itself;
 - b. Labeling of safety-related terms, such as references to side-impact safety testing, including on marketing materials, packaging, instructional materials, or the seat itself;

¹ ProPublica, Daniela Porat & Patricia Callahan, "Evenflo, Maker of the 'Big Kid' Booster Seat, Put Profits Over Child Safety" (Feb. 6, 2020) (online at www.propublica.org/article/evenflo-maker-of-the-big-kid-booster-seat-put-profits-over-child-safety).

- c. Labeling of potential risks, including on marketing materials, packaging, instructional materials, or the seat itself;
 - d. Safety and risk standards used in connection with side-impact testing, including discussion of what constituted a "passing" result; and
 - e. Actual results and records of impact and other safety testing; and
3. All communications with the federal agencies referring or relating to safety standards.

The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X. An attachment to this letter provides additional instructions for responding to the Committee's request. If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Subcommittee staff at (202) 225-5051.

13. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(9), the Privacy Act shall not be a basis for withholding information.

If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, produce all documents that would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

18. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data, or information not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.

20. Two sets of each production shall be delivered, one set to the Majority Staff and one set to the Minority Staff.
