

just dont see the nexus between sexual preference and the work place. Its 2019 everyone has their rights now let's get back to work, these children arent going to separete themselves.

Also now more than ever people have a right to be pissed at work. The agency should find ways of highlighting people and honoring them for going above and beyond. Instead they are praising people based on how they were born. Seems pretty unappreciative and misguided.

very good point. And not all cbp employees have pride in it.
Celebrating ones heritage.
African American, European,
Asian etc is fine. Celebrating who you stick your dick into is not. Shouldn't even matter.
Shouldn't even be a topic.
