Subject: Question from Bloomberg reporter

Hi Brett,
Scott Dean recommended you as a helpful contact. I'm a reporter with Bloomberg News in San Francisco. I'm researching an in-depth article about how industry associations (like NAM, API, etc.) formulate their positions on climate; how their positions seem to be out of step with a number of their individual members (like BP); and how this issue gets discussed inside of these organizations. I'd love to have an in-depth conversation about this with somebody at BP. Would you be able to help me with this request? Thanks,
- Ben Elgin
