Subject: RE: U.S. Comms team -- week ahead

Kelley and Brett,

Thanks for continuing these emails throughout the summer. Sahara and Mary shared a few recent editions that contained an impressive amount of content.

Yes, I will pick up this email beginning next Friday, 9/6 and would appreciate the distro list. For context to this group, here is my plan to begin engaging the communications team:

- Tues, 9/3 – Email to introduce myself, recognize the extraordinary work this team is delivering, and highlight the opportunities ahead
- Friday, 9/6 – Weekly email. In the near term, I will follow the format you/Brett created
- Thurs or Friday, 9/5-6 – JP leads all comms team call; a similar discussion to the Tues email + Q&A (Mary also to join, pending schedules)
- Week of 9/9 – Comms management team in-person meeting (please let me know your travel schedules to DC)
- October – All comms team in person meeting + outing (pending timing on Sr Director, Internal Comms). Bring together the entire team in DC, Houston or Chicago for a strategy session, breakout meetings, dinner, and a team activity (pending budget)

Please let me know if you have questions or suggestions.

Thanks again,

JP

Subject: U.S. Comms team -- week ahead

Hi JP!

Hope day one went well.

Brett, Sahara and I have been pulling together week ahead notes for the comms team to help us stay connected on activity sets and to recognize all the great work being done by the team. Below please find some things we're tracking. @TARA HARRISON Please let us know if the job posting will indeed be extended (highlighted in yellow below).

We thought you might want to send the week ahead note – or your own version of it – next week? Sahara can share the distro list if so. Please let us know if you have questions/concerns. Thanks!
