Dear Representatives Cummings, Maloney, Kelly, Meehan, King, Donovan, and Fitzpatrick:

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) supports the Gun Trafficking Prevention Act of 2015. NOBLE has advocated for sensible gun laws to protect the public for most of our nearly 40 years of existence.

The legislation which you are proposing addresses the concerns of many in the law enforcement community in the areas of Firearms Trafficking, Penalties for Straw Purchasers, and Penalties for Multiple Illegal Purchases.

NOBLE applauds the efforts of its congressional leaders in diligently working to have the Gun Trafficking Prevention Act of 2015 enacted into law.

Sincerely,

Dwayne A. Crawford
Executive Director

About the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives

Since 1976, The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) has served as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 3,000 members internationally, who are primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
