The Honorable Merrick B. Garland
Attorney General
Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Attorney General Garland:

I write to request that the Department of Justice (DOJ) immediately provide the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform (the Committee) with a complete copy of Volume Two of Special Counsel Jack Smith's final report on the mishandling of classified documents by President Donald Trump and associates for review, in camera.

On January 8, 2025, in a filing before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, DOJ indicated that Volume Two of Special Counsel Jack Smith's final report would not be made public so long as certain criminal proceedings remain pending.<sup>1</sup> As detailed in the filing, Volume Two of the final report relates to the Special Counsel's investigation of the mishandling of classified documents by President Donald Trump and associates.<sup>2</sup> Instead of a public release, DOJ outlined its intent to provide a version of Volume Two "to the Chairmen and Ranking Members of the House and Senate Judiciary Committees for review in camera upon their request and agreement prohibiting any public release of the Final Report's contents."<sup>3</sup> Given the jurisdiction and role of this Committee, similar access to Volume Two must be afforded to the Committee.

The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) is responsible for the collection and retention of records created or received by the President, including classified information.<sup>4</sup> NARA played a central role in the case involving President Trump's willful retention of classified documents after leaving office, going so far as to refer the matter to DOJ in February of 2022.<sup>5</sup> House Rule X assigns the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform with jurisdiction over NARA. Indeed, Chairman James Comer exercised this jurisdiction during the 118th Congress when he investigated then Vice President Joe Biden's retention of presidential records, demanding related documents, communications, and transcribed interviews with senior officials from NARA.<sup>6</sup> Furthermore, House Rule X designates the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and affords the Committee broad authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time."

In light of the Committee's legislative jurisdiction over presidential records, broad investigative jurisdiction, and vested interest in this matter, I urge DOJ to make available Volume Two of Special Counsel Jack Smith's final report to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform for review in camera immediately or no later than January 15, 2025.

If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Committee staff at (202) 225-5051. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
